

PARENTS WATCH 200 YOUNGSTERS RIDE FOR CUPS

Juvenile Equestrians in Annual Carnival at Durland's.

Nearly 200 children took part in the twenty-ninth annual juvenile equestrian carnival yesterday morning at the Durland Riding Academy while their parents, governesses, nurses and a large gathering of women and men who are familiar figures on the bridge of Central Park looked on from the balconies. After a cotton music ride, commanded by Charles T. Krauss, all horse show classes were judged.

Mrs. John Gerken, who acted in a similar capacity at the children's ride two weeks ago in the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club, was again the sole judge. The first and second prizes in each class were silver cups, valued, respectively, at $75 and $50. Some of the winners were so tiny and young that they were unable to carry away the big cups they won.

The crowning features were the standing of prizes to the best girl and the best boy rider, style and skill in equestrianism only to be considered. There was a tie for the cup for the best girl rider, and Mrs. Gerken ordered that each of the two should receive a cup. The tie was between little Miss Constantine Sala Regan, of Westbury, Long Island, who was a familiar figure in several of the children's classes at the last national horse show, and Miss Barbara Guggenheim.

Miss Regan rode her own mount, the bay mare Twilight, while Miss Guggenheim was mounted on Fred Wittich's chestnut mare, Sunshine. A still younger child of the Westbury hunting family, little Jean Regan, was second in the pony class.

Fifteen boys competed for the other cup. The winner was Master Fred Wittich, Jr., on Sunshine. Alexander Preece of Queens, Long Island, won the second cup on Miss Baruch's chestnut gelding, His Honor.

The awards follow:
First class (under 142 hands and under 10 years): Master Preece, second, Miss Constantine Sala Regan; third, Miss Barbara Guggenheim.
Second class (over 142 and under 148 hands): Master Preece, second, Miss Constantine Sala Regan; third, Miss Barbara Guggenheim.
Third class (over 148 and under 152 hands): Master Preece, second, Miss Constantine Sala Regan; third, Miss Barbara Guggenheim.

BULLS AND BEARS BANG AT "BIRDS"

Forty-five Members of the Stock Exchange Pay Annual Visit to Traps.

In the presence of a hundred of their friends, forty-five members of the Stock Exchange who favor transposing as a sport, went to trapping on the floor of the stock exchange yesterday morning for the principle trophy. Howard Bolton, who won a leg for the cup in 1914, was again the winner of a leg yesterday, and if he should succeed in snaring next year the trophy will be his property.

His high scratch score of 93 out of the possible 100, won the leg for him. His competitors and their scores were: B. C. Geddes, 85; the winners of the 1915 leg for the cup, Arthur Corlies, 87; A. C. Deming, 85; E. Pearl, 86; Stuart Scott, 83; C. B. Spears, 83; D. A. Tauchert, 82; C. P. Pillot, 80, and H. Whitney, 76.

7TH REGIMENT MEN WIN MALPIN TROPHY

A team of six men from the 7th Regiment, shooting against teams from other organizations that are members of the Veteran Military Rifle Association of New York, at the 47th Regiment ranges, returned the top score of 357, and in doing so captured the much coveted Malpin trophy, for it was now two previous legs for the prize.

The 7th's team won from the 11th Regiment men by just 8 points, its total being 349. The scores of the last night and aggregate scores for the three matches follow:
